all you need to know

CHANGE THE SYSTEM NOT THE CLIMATE!

In December 2009, the largest 'climate summit' ever to be held will take place in Copenhagen, Denmark. This summit has been billed as our 'last, best hope' to do something about climate change. But as emissions continue to rise and talks focus on false solutions that allow climate criminals to pollute and profit, it is time to say enough - no more business as usual! Come and join the Climate Camp with thousands of other activists from around the world as we converge on the summit for a week of counter conference and protest, climaxing with the Climate Justice Action network marching on the summit on 16th December. We will use non-violent direct action to push into the conference area, disrupt the sessions and use the space to talk about our agenda, an agenda from below, an agenda of climate justice, of real solutions against their false ones.

HOW DO I GET THERE?

Climate Camp coaches depart at 10am from Leeds (the Common Place) and 15.30 London (Embankment) on Friday 11th December and leave Copenhagen on Friday 18th December and will cost you £100. Travelling with activists is the best way to find out what's going on and find support and accommodation when you get to Copenhagen. Tickets are limited - to book yours now, contact us at the email address opposite.

WHERE WILL I STAY?

Hotels and hostels are likely to be booked up already, but CJA are planning to set up a number of convergence centres to house tens of thousands of us! Climate Camp UK will be organising floor space for everyone on the coaches to crash.

WHAT SUPPORT WILL THERE BE?

It's not exactly a package holiday, but CJA will support activists with medics, a legal team and information through the convergence centres. However, please try and be as self-sufficient as you can.

HOW MUCH WILL IT COST?

Copenhagen is an expensive city - a pint of beer costs over £5 and don't plan on meals out! You can expect to find food at convergence centres, which is likely to be on donation basis. We suggest a budget of around £75 for the week.

WHAT SHOULD I BRING?

Sleeping bag and mat - warm clothes, - Euros for the journey - first aid kit - passport and photocopy - European Health Insurance Card - adapter plug (two round pins) - waterproofs - flask and plenty of enthusiasm. Don't bring knives - drugs - or any conspicuous equipment for direct action.
